PREFACE

This compilation provides a final cumulative listing of hearings, committee prints and miscellaneous publications published by the United States Senate during the 98th Congress (1983-84).

Beginning with the 98th Congress, the Senate implemented a plan to identify all of its publications by means of a numbering system which designated the category of publication, the Congress in which the publication was issued and a sequential number. Senate reports and documents have followed this pattern for many years, but hearings, prints and miscellaneous publications were not previously numbered.

In August 1983, the Senate Library began to supply non-cumulative listings of Senate hearings, prints and publications to the Library Programs Service (LPS) of the Superintendent of Documents of the Government Printing Office. LPS appended the listings to its monthly newsletter, "Administrative Notes," which is distributed to government depository libraries. In July 1986, the Senate Library issued a cumulative compilation of these listings entitled "List of Committee Hearings, Committee Prints and Publications of the United States Senate, 98th Congress, 1983-1984." This cumulation was subsequently distributed to government depository libraries in microform.

The present publication contains updated and corrected information and supersedes all previous forms of the compilation.

Walter J. Stewart,
Secretary of the Senate
